

In Free Concert

Debbie Milligan of Englewood, Colo., will present two free concerts in Coatesville as she shares the healing grace of Jesus Christ through her music and powerful testimony of years of hurt and, then, healing.

Her fresh and unique acoustic sound offers hope, comfort and emotional healing to the wounded heart.

It will be her first concert tour since the June 4 release of her new album, "Come On".

Debbie appears at university campuses, churches, prisons, Indian reservations and in support of overseas missions and missionaries.

She reaches across cultural, racial and denominational divides to bring ministry to the Church and healing and freedom to a hurting world.

Information on ministries in the Coatesville area to assist the hurting will be available at the concerts.
