

Next Steps in Transformation

December 8 & 9

Saturday & Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

(Evening meetings are free.)

The Transformation Summit of 2006 gave us new vision and momentum. Now Alistair and Mike Petrie return to help us with some "next steps." The Friday and Saturday seminar will cover a wide range of topics that will be helpful in the church or marketplace and requires registration. The transformation rallies on Saturday and Sunday nights are open to everyone without registration.

Childcare is available during general conference evening meetings for infants through kindergarten. One to two children is $5 each and three or more are a flat rate of $12.

Sponsored by HarvestNET, Inc.

Hosted by Ephrata Community Church
70 Clay School Road, Ephrata, PA

Offerings will be taken at meetings to help cover the expense of the conference.

Alistair Petrie has been active as a speaker and consultant for churches and ministries throughout North America and overseas. His main focus is helping the Church discover the cutting-edge insights of turning an entire community towards Christ and preparing for Revival. Alistair is the Executive Director of Partnership Ministries.
