

Thorndale United Methodist Church is excited about Summer 2008! A “Summer Reading in the Park” series is one of many opportunities that we will be sharing with our Chester County neighbors and friends, as we read together James W. Moore’s insightful book, “Attitude Is Your Paintbrush.” We will explore, for example, what it means to have an attitude of compassion, an attitude of gratitude, and an attitude of perseverance in our daily lives. We will gather in local parks each week to discuss what we discover in the weekly chapter readings.

The schedule for our “study without walls” will take place at 6:30 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings beginning on Monday, June 16th and ending on Wednesday, September 10th as follows:

Mondays at 6:30pm at Caln Municipal Park, located on Municipal Drive in Thorndale (near the Caln Township Building)

Tuesdays at 6:30pm at Kerr Park on Wallace Avenue in Downingtown

Wednesdays at 6:30pm at Beacon Hill Park, located at 1765 Beacon Hill Rd in Downingtown, (behind West Bradford Elementary School)

The food and refreshments are “pot luck.” All who are able are welcome to bring food or beverages to share with others, but it is not necessary to bring anything – just join us, please!

We are taking a step beyond a scripture-based Bible study format in hopes of sharing thoughts and wisdom with our neighbors of all faiths and traditions.

All are cordially invited to join us each week in Sunday morning worship at our 8:30am Celebration of Worship and 11am Celebration and Praise services. The weekly chapter readings will be the sermon topic at both services during the summer.

To order the book or for further details, please call the church office at 610-384-2433.

Note: (In the event of heavy rain or storms, we will gather at Thorndale United Methodist Church at 3503 Lincoln Hwy, Thorndale, PA 19372).
